

WEB PHOTOS: COMMUNITY EVENT CAPTIONS

Final Version: July 18, 2008

Introductory Caption:

More than 1,100 guests attended an “Evening in the Park,” a private community launch event held May 21 to celebrate the opening of Marley Park and the Model Home Neighborhood. Guests enjoyed a glimpse of the Marley Park lifestyle with Welcome Center and model home tours; street fair activities by community organizations and alliances; a barbecue; and a concert in Marley Park, one of the community’s signature parks.

Photo 1117 – Spectators in Park:

Guests gathered in Marley Park, one of the community’s nine neighborhood parks in Phase I, to enjoy a barbecue and a concert by the popular Valley performing group Zowie Bowie.

Photo 1072 – Child on Monkeybars

Children played in Marley Park, one of nine themed neighborhood parks that will be developed in the community’s first phase.

Photo 1092 – Family on Porch

Families gathered on the front porch of one of the nine model homes showcased during the event. In total, 21 models will be featured in the Model Home Neighborhood. Front porches are a signature feature of Marley Park neighborhoods.

Photo 0269 – Zowie Bowie

Kids danced on stage with the Valley’s popular Zowie Bowie during a concert in Marley Park that capped off the community launch event.

Photo 0144 – Couple in Park

More than 1,100 guests attended the community launch event, which showcased Marley Park homes and provided a sense of the lifestyle that will be enjoyed in the new community.

Photo 092 – Heritage Pool House Grand Opening 4-12-08

A young resident cools off in the pool during the Marley Park Heritage Pool House Grand Opening event in April. The new pool house features a play pool, separate lap pool, splash fountain, multiple fire pits, barbecues, and picnic tables.

Photo 023 – Relay for Life

Marley Park's Relay for Life team spirit burned all through the night during the annual American Cancer Society benefit on April 26. Krystal Medrano, left, and Kimberly Maxwell, 11, totter through the 3 a.m. three-legged race. The Marley Park relay team raised more than $3,000 for cancer research during the 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. event at Surprise Stadium.

Photo 069 – Teen Mural Unveiling 5-28-08

Marley Park teens (from left to right) Melanie Galison, Adam Galaviz & Tiffany Green, have worked on a Character Counts! Teen Mural over the last several weeks with local artist, Connie Whitlock for the Teen Room at the Marley Park Heritage Club, the community's resident recreation facility. Teens had the opportunity to create individual murals that represent the 6 Pillars of Character: Responsibility, Respect, Fairness, Trustworthiness, Citizenship, and Caring. The teens were able to share their individual pieces with the community at the special unveiling.

Photo 010 – Penumbra Unveiling 6-4-08

Marley Park residents take in the Gallery 37 public art display in the community's new neighborhood park, Plaza Park, which opened in June. The community's public art piece was created by the student apprentices of the Gallery 37 art program, in partnership with the West Valley Arts Council and Marley Park.

Photo 032 – Star Spangled Celebration 7-3-08

Taylor & Katelin Vance show their patriotic spirit during the parade at the annual Star Spangled Celebration at Marley Park July 3, which drew nearly 600 residents and guests.